Dear Mr. Greenwood:

Thank you again for hosting me during my 2000 sabbatical at Massachusetts Institute of Technology and participating and funding many research projects with me and working on the paper on XML for Click-Through Contracts for the International Journal for Law and Information Technology.

On the basis of same, and my current projects in extreme participatory democracy, I am applying for the Code X Legal Fellowship at Stanford University. Would you be willing to serve as a reference?

I had the foresight to collect "To Whom It May Concern" letters of recommendation over the decades--which I will send to them. Hopefully, that will be sufficient and they won't contact the ones I will provide on their job application system.

Sincerely yours,

Laurence L. Leff, Ph.D.
Associate Professor of Computer Science
